

Model ( A )

Q.1 What is The Dynamic Web Sites?

Dynamic Web sites are flexible and potent creatures, more accurately described as applications than merely sites. Dynamic Web sites.

Q.2 How to send data to the client and why we need to?

A.21 sending data to client (web browser) can be by echo or print language constructs. We need it to send html code or string to web browser.

Q.3 How To Concatenating Strings in PHP, Explain More With Example?

In php using the concatenation operator, which is (.): EX1

```
$fname = 'waleed';
```

```
$lname = 'alshalif';
```

```
$fullname = $fname . $lname ; EX2
```

```
$fname = 'waleed';
```

```
$fname .= 'alshalif';
```

Q.4 What is The Better To Use Single Quotation or Double Quotation Explain Why?

The values inside Single Quotation will be treated literally

The values inside Double Quotation will be treated interpreted

Prefer double quotation because the allowing process inside it so

I can print output with process result

Q.5 What ( List ) is Super Global Arrays in PHP Write More About one of Them?

A.5 They are a predefined arrays in PHP.

They are: $_GET, $_POST, $_REQUEST, $_SERVER, $_ENV, $_SESSION, and $_COOKIE

The $_GET variable is where PHP stores all of the values sent to a PHP script via the GET method

The $_POST stores all of the data sent to a PHP script from an HTML form that uses the POST method.

Multip_Answer

Most web servers use, html for standard html page

You can embed of php code within the single html document

Php support eight of variables

Null a special type that is no value

To randomize the order in array shuffle ()

Waleed Alshalif